8.1.12 Establishment of Dental Education Department by the College for the range and quality of Faculty Development Programmes in emerging trends in Dental Educational Technology organized by it.

Faculty development programs are organized in this institution under the guidance of DEU. Interdisciplinary CDE and Program for academic contribution and excellence (PACE) are conducted in every month. Such programs are able to maintain high quality evidence based education to all the faculty members. This ongoing education programs are equally beneficial for the faculty and the student community. Various programs focusing on the inter relationship among the different branches of dentistry and medicine are being conducted.

Ensure good optimal oral health for all the patients as all the faculty members and students are updated with recent treatment strategy in all aspects of dentistry. These programs are intended to provide a frame work for an in-service training for the faculty members and also serves as a resource for oral health care.

The attendees are always made aware of hazards of using limited knowledge in integrating new techniques or procedures into their practice and make sure that only evidence based dentistry should be used in patient therapy

Professional knowledge of employees is being constantly judged, compared and demand constant updation. These CDE programs helps in improving the professional knowledge. The institution is promoting these programs to improve and update of career.
